

Click to enable Adobe Flash Player

Monday, 18 May 2009

NEWS BAR » indy-Navy match called off abruptly ...

HOME | SHARE MARKET | EXCHANGE RATE | TRADING | SUPPLEMENTS | PICTURE GALLERY | ARCHIVES | Google

- HOME
- DAILYNEWS ONLINE
- News
- Editorial
- Business
- Features
- Political
- Security
- Sport
- World
- Letters
- Obituaries

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

- OTHER LINKS
- Marriage Proposals
- Classifieds
- GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Three top LTTE leaders killed: Bodies found abandoned

Nadeshan Ramesh

Sri Lankan Special Forces soldiers have found bodies of three key LTTE leaders identified as Nadeshan, Pulidevan and Ramesh during the mop operations in the last LTTE foothold this morning(May 18). According to the latest information, the remaining LTTE cadres are now boxed into a 100m x 100m area, North of Vellamullivaikkal.

Nadeshan who was a former police constable of Sri Lanka police and known to be the political head of the outfit. Pulidevan was known to the head of "LTTE peace secretariat" while Ramesh was one of the most senior special military leader of the outfit.

EMAIL | PRINTABLE VIEW | FEEDBACK

