Civilians' Casualties

The following information regarding civilian casualties was collected from media sources, local and international humanitarian agencies, including TRO, and health workers. The Government of Sri Lanka (GoSL) is continuing their military offensive in the Vanni where most of these attacks on civilian settlements, hospitals, churches and internally displaced persons (IDP) camps occurred. During the period 1/11/08-30/11/08 we were unable to collect comprehensive details of the dead and injured persons due to the ongoing attacks by the GoSL on hospitals in the Vanni and restrictions imposed on the hospitals in Vavuniya by the Sri Lankan authorities.

Civilian casualties

The following information regarding civilian casualties was collected from media sources, local and international humanitarian agencies, including TRO, and health workers. The Government of Sri Lanka (GoSL) is continuing their military offensive in the Vanni where most of these attacks in so called Save Zone occurred. During the period 1/02/09-27/02/09 we were unable to collect comprehensive details of the dead and injured persons due to the ongoing attacks by the GoSL on hospitals in the Vanni and restrictions imposed on the hospitals in Vavuniya by the Sri Lankan authorities.

Sri Lanka Army (SLA) fired artillery shells fitted with cluster munitions and fire-bombs into civilian 'safety zone' killing at least 133 civilians between 2:30 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday. Around 274 civilians were wounded. 300 tarpaulin huts burned down to ashes in Multi-Barrel Rocket Launcher (MBRL) fired rockets. The medical store at Valaignarnadam has sustained damage and the son of a doctor was reported killed there. 45 injured ones, died in the hospital. 15 of them are children. As it is raining heavily, volunteers feel difficulties to bring the injured ones to the hospital as well as removing dead bodies from the area.
